Year 10 - Curriculum Map

MACBETH

by William Shakespeare

Year 10 - Half term 1 & 2

Students will spend the first term reading the whole of Macbeth - exploring thematic and character based developments. This unit will embed exam skills such as close-text analysis, analysis of extracts, tracking of key developments across the play

01

LANGUAGE C1

Component 1 - 20th Century Reading & Creative Prose

Year 10 - Half term 3

This half-term will develop the skill-sets needed to approach their GCSE Language paper, Component 1 - using unseen fiction extracts - finessing their comprehension, analysis of language and structure, evaluation and creative writing skills.

02

ANTHOLOGY POETRY

GCSE Literature - Component 2

Year 10 - Half term 3

Students will spend this half-term analysing the first 10 poems from their GCSE Poetry Anthology. This will comprise of in-depth annotations of key poems, whilst embedding contextual knowledge into their analysis. Students will develop revision resource in preparation for exams.

03

LANGUAGE C2

Component 2 - 19th and 21st Century Non-Fiction Reading and Persuasive Writing

Year 10 - Half term 4

Students will develop the skill-sets needed to approach their GCSE Language paper, Component 2 - using two unseen non-fiction extracts from the 19th and 21st century - finessing their comprehension, language and structure analysis, evaluation, summary, comparative writing and transactional writing skills.

04

SPEAKING AND LISTENING

Spoken Language GCSE Assessment

Year 10 - Half term 5

As part of their GCSE, students will prepare their speeches for their assessment - researching, planning, writing and memorising their speeches on their chosen topics.

05

Year 10 Mock Preparation

GCSE Language and Literature.

Year 10 - Half term 6

Students will be revising all of their learning on Macbeth, An Inspector Calls, Anthology Poetry, Language Component 1 and 2.

06

Year 11 - Curriculum Map

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

by Charles Dickens

Year 11 - Half term 1 & 2

Students will spend the first 10 weeks of term reading the whole of A Christmas Carol - exploring thematic and character based developments. This unit will embed exam skills such as close-text analysis, analysis of extracts, tracking of key developments across the play.

01

MOCK PREPARATION

Revisiting prior learning

Year 11 - Half term 1 & 2

Prior to students' November mocks,, students will be revisiting content from A Christmas Carol, Anthology Poetry (10 poem studied in Year 10) and Language Component 2

02

MOCK PREPARATION

Revisiting prior learning

Year 11 - Half term 3

Prior to students' February mocks,, students will be revisiting content from Macbeth, Unseen Poetry and Language Component 1.

03

ANTHOLOGY POETRY

GCSE Literature - Component 2

Year 11 - Half term 3 & 4

During this term, students will be analysing the final 8 poems from their GCSE Poetry Anthology. This will comprise of in-depth annotations of key poems, whilst embedding contextual knowledge into their analysis. Students will develop revision resource in preparation for exams.

04

STRUCTURED REVISION

Revisiting prior learning

Year 11 - Half term 5

Students will spend this time being led by their class teachers in visiting all elements of their Language and Literature GCSE

05

GCSE Examinations

Year 11 - Half term 6

Students will be finishing their GCSE exams.

06