

Lord Grey Academy

Lulu Update

I am missing my regular visits to the school and am missing the students who take time to take me out for walks and throw balls for me. I really miss going to the LSU!

My owner can't take me out for walks as often as he used to so I have been running around the garden. I may have caused some damage to some plants and my owner is complaining that there is less grass on the lawn too.

My owner spends a lot of his day working on the computer setting work for his students and he gets a bit annoyed when I bring him a ball to throw for me every two minutes.

I hope that you are getting on with your work and I can't wait to come back to Lord Grey to see you all - hopefully soon!
