

Online Safety – Information for Parents and Carers

Supporting Parents and Carers Online Leaflet

Childnet International have produced a leaflet for parents and carers explaining the key risks facing young people online, along with a checklist for parents and carers to complete to improve online safety inside and outside of the home. The leaflet is available in a range of different languages and can be accessed via the following link:

Other Relevant Websites

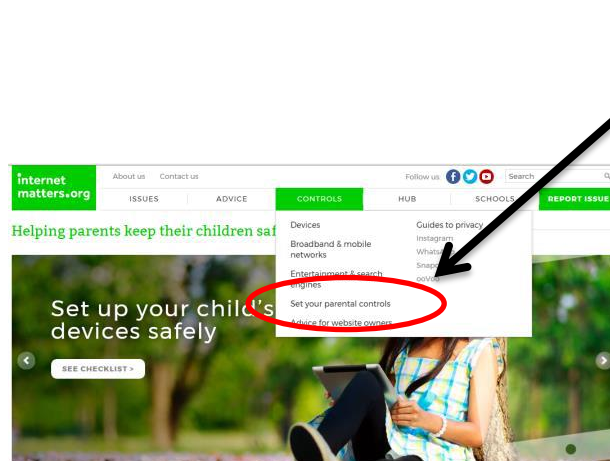

There are a number of other websites providing a wealth of information and advice relating to online safety. These include a number of checklists which provide step-by-step guides on how to improve privacy across a range of social media platforms, including Twitter, Facebook, Snapchat and Instagram. A summary of these websites can be found by accessing the following link:

Internet Matters

The Internet Matters website provides parents and carers with advice and guidance in relation to a range of risks facing children and young people online, including online bullying, sexting, grooming and many more. The website also provides a simple tool which can help you to implement parental controls and filters. Advice is e-mailed to you directly and tailored to your own circumstances, based on your internet service provider, mobile phone operator, the devices you own and the websites and online platforms that you and your children use. The tool can be accessed by visiting www.internetmatters.org and following the instructions below:

Responding to Online Bullying

If your child informs you that they have been bullied online, it is important to respond calmly and constructively. Consider using the prompt below to help you respond appropriately and source the most appropriate support for your children. Remember, it is important that your child feels involved when considering how best to respond to incidents of online bullying.

Online Bullying - P.L.E.A.S.E Think

- Praise your child for telling you and reassure them
- Listen carefully to what they have to say
- Empower your child to feel in control of the situation
 - Block the bully
 - Save the evidence
- Agree on a plan of action (consider school)
- Support and Signpost
- Evaluate your response

O2/NSPCC Online Safety Hotline

The NSPCC have teamed up with O2 to provide an Online Safety Hotline for parents and carers. If you have any questions regarding online safety, including questions relating to setting up filters and parental controls or advice in relation to how to deal with an online safety incident, you can contact the hotline via the number below.
