Dear Parents, Carers and Guardians of Year 10 students,

Later this half-term, Year 10 students will begin studying William Shakespeare's play 'Macbeth'. To support your child in their study of the play, we would like to recommend that students have their own personal copy of the play - whilst all students will be able to access a copy of the play in their lessons, owning their own personal copy means that students will be able to annotate the text and add their own personal notes about the key concepts and knowledge discussed in lessons.

If you would like to purchase a copy of the play 'Macbeth', the following Amazon link will direct you to the edition used most commonly in lessons - Amazon 'Macbeth' link. Whilst ordering, you may wish to purchase your child a copy of J. B. Priestley's play 'An Inspector Calls', which students studied earlier this year, as well as Charles Dickens' 'A Christmas Carol', which they will study in Year 11 - using these links will take you directly to the same editions used in lessons.

If you have any questions at all, please do contact your child's English teacher or myself. We look forward to speaking to you at Parents' Evening.

Kind regards,

Holly Cantle
