Red = This is the name of the subject you will be taught during that particular period of the day.

Blue = This is the class code. You will be in different classes for some of your subjects, as you can see from this example.

Green = This is the three letter code of your teacher. You will quickly learn the names of your teachers.

Orange = This is the classroom where your lesson is taking place. There are maps, and lots of students, to help you locate your classrooms.
